A letter from Father Vincent Dominguez:

Dear Parishioners, Staff, Father Johnny and Father Fernando, I, would like to thank you all for your generosity, kindness and patience towards me during this transition period. I believe that being a young priest ordained a little over 7 years, I had sufficient time to reflect and meditate on many things. This will help me in my new assignment as Parochial Vicar in Moriarty under the Pastorship of Father Bill Young, effective May 1, 2010. I pray and thank God for all of you that He may continue to bless you. Again I appreciate you all and I don't like to say good byes, so until we meet and see each other again, keep the faith and be strong..

Father Vincent Dominguez
